

The Maxwell Project — Biography

History

Best known for their driving rhythm section, tight vocal harmonies and exceptional horns, THE MAXWELL PROJECT (TMP) has performed extensively throughout the Pennsylvania area for many years. The 10-piece group, which includes a five-piece horn section and three lead vocalists, has recorded three original CDs and has enjoyed modest area radio play in the past.

The Maxwell Project has shared the stage with numerous recording acts including R&B legends, “The Temptations,” “Harold Melvin and the Blue Notes,” “The Spinners,” and, most recently, “The Stylistics” and “Philly Intruders” in a 2005 NYE appearance at the Lancaster Host Expo Center.

Recent Performances:

- Hollywood Casino – Rooftop Lounge, Grantville, PA
- Strand Capitol Theatre for the Performing Arts, York, PA
- Countdown Stage, NYE 2006, Harrisburg, PA
- Levitt Pavilion for the Performing Arts, Harrisburg, PA
- Heritage Hills Country Club, York, PA
- The Chameleon Club, Lancaster, PA
- The Village Night Club, Lancaster, PA
- Keystone International Balloon Fest, Lancaster, PA
- Riverfest 2006, Wrightsville, PA
- The Yacht Club, Philadelphia
- Eden Resort, Lancaster, PA
- Lauxmont Farms Banquet Center, Wrightsville, PA
- Host Expo Center, Lancaster, PA

Repertoire:

In addition to performing the R&B, funk, and classic soul music that made them the area’s favorite party band for many years, THE MAXWELL PROJECT can also perform a smooth jazz cocktail or dinner set. See our Repertoire sheet for more information.

For more information visit: www.themaxwellproject.com